No pictures, but my father owned one from 1989 to 1995, long track. Great sled to learn on, really good at hauling fire wood. This is the sled we replaced it with in 1995. 12000+ kms and many slide loads of wood, much better than the bravo. Picture was taken yesterday. P.S new four-stroke bravo in 2010, dealer told me. He was right about the venture light in 2005.
