Well, considering the subject, it is easy to guess that things will get u Having read and fell in love with Bonjour Tristesse, I knew I had to read Sagan’s second short novel Certain Smile.

A Certain Smile by Françoise Sagan - Goodreads

A Certain Smile shares many of the themes Sagan introduced in Bonjour Tristesse; an absence of morality, a love-triangle, the replacement of a lost mother and the duality of lover and father-figure. It also share the same immediacy of thought and at times reads like a diary, perfectly capturing the dichotomy between youthful romanticism and the reality of complicated adult relationships.
