Acorna The Unicorn Girl 1

Acorna: The Unicorn Girl (1997), by Anne McCaffrey and Margaret Ball, fits into a genre that nobody ever asked for: a vaguely humorous novel about a unicorn girl and child enslavement. What exactly is this novel trying to be? I have no idea, but like the Hindenburg, it sure does crash and burn well.

Acorna: The Unicorn Girl - USA TODAY

As the girl grows at a rate much faster than human children, the miners realize that others would like to take the girl, who they named Acorna, off their hands and exploit her powers. The three miners do everything they can to protect Acorna and give her a meaningful life, but even they can't shield her from all the injustice in the galaxy.
