Amplified | Tara Kelly | Macmillan

Tara Kelly's debut book, Harmonic Feedback, was a finalist in the 2010 Cybils Young Adult Fiction category. It was a fabulous story and frankly, she had a lot to live up to. Luckily for everyone (especially me!) Amplified is a powerful and just darn good story.

Book Review: Amplified (Amplified, #1) by Tara Kelly | Mboten

Tara Kelly adores variety in her life. She's an author and one-girl-band by night, and a graphic designer, video producer, and photographer by day. She lives in Sin City with her beloved guitars, sound design master husband, and a fluffy cat named Maestro. Ratings: I give honest ratings, even if I like you.

Amplified is Kelly's second novel, and after Harmonic Feedback, my expectations were quite high. Fortunately, this book not only delivers, but it's one that takes some of the best elements of Kelly's writing — her knowledge of music, her well-voiced and true-to-age narrators, and a steady but pulsing pace — and amps them up just a little more.
