LibrisNotes: Auslander by Paul Dowswell

One of my favourite children's fiction books. Paul Dowswell is always historically accurate and he combines this with a nail biting adventure. A different perspective on WW 2 fiction. Simply brilliant! (Note - school librarian for nearly 20 years)

Un romanzo davvero notevole, questo di Paul Dowswell che ci racconta da un'angolatura nuova e diversa la seconda guerra mondiale e il nazismo, rivelando così una forza narratrice e rivelatrice superiore a molti altri testi per ragazzi che ci parlano dello stesso periodo. "Auslander" (come recita la copertina: sostantivo maschile che significa straniero) ci mostra...

"Auslander" di Paul Dowswell, Feltrinelli Kids | Libri e ...

Paul Dowswell put a lot of thought into Auslander and paid great attention to detail. It gives you a good idea of how life would be during World War Two for children and orphans. We think if the author had given a first person narrative of Piotr then we would have warmed to the character quicker in the story.
