THE BYZANTINE MONUMENTS AND TOPOGRAPHY OF THE PONTOS

Reviewed in the United States on November 9, 2011. This voluminous work by Professor Bryer and David Winfield on the Byzantine monuments and topography of the Pontus is by far the most detailed work on the subject - at least in the English language. Containing extensive information on both the Greek monuments (churches and monasteries) and the Greek cities, towns and villages - it is a must read for anyone wanting to explore the rich past of this almost forgotten region in north eastern Turkey.

The Byzantine Monuments and Topography of the Pontos. Anthony Bryer, David Winfield. The Pontos and its empire of Trebizond (1204-1461) embraced the distinctive Black Sea coastlands, mountains, and pastures of northeastern Anatolia. The importance of this unusual study is twofold. First, it places the material remains of the medieval peoples of the Pontos in their historical and environmental setting through a sequence of local histories.
