a thorough exposition of Biblical love as found in 1 Corinthians 13. As one of Edward's best known works, it is entirely free from sentimentality.

Preached as a series of moving sermons in 1738 from the pulpit of his small "Church at Northampton," Connecticut, it reveals Edward's insistence both that Christian experience ...

Abstract. When a great thinker sees a universal, teleological pattern at work in nature—a sweeping vision of creation—it is tempting to test such a view with the work of other great thinkers.
