“I like dancing” and “I like to dance” are both OK! “I like to dancing” and “I like dance” are NOT OK. Why? When you use “like”, you have two options for the next verb. Option 1 is an infinitive. Infinitives are to + base verb. To go, to swim, to eat, to dance, to drive, to talk, to listen, to cry . . . all are infinitives! Option 2 is a gerund. A gerund ends in -ing. Going, swimming, eating, dancing, driving, talking, listening, crying . . . all are gerunds!
