Daughter of Sand and Stone - Kindle edition by Hawker ...

In Daughter of Sand and Stone, Hawker brings us the timely story of Zenobia, an ancient queen of Palmyra, the beautiful ruins of which city ISIS recently destroyed. After that wanton smashing of the iconic columns and other structures, it is all the more poignant to read this vivid and lush telling of the rise of Palmyra's most famous woman, perhaps Palmyra's most famous person of either ...

The story in Daughter of Sand and Stone is the story of a young woman who quite possibly thought too much of herself and her own destiny, who rose from chieftain's youngest daughter to Roman governor's wife to Queen to very, very briefly, Empress. What we see is a young woman who seems first to have been a legend in her own mind.

Review: Daughter of Sand and Stone by Libbie Hawker ...

Daughter of Sand and Stone is written in third person present tense for some reason, which makes it difficult initially to get into the narrative flow. Hawker has a solid imagination, filling in the lines for what history fails to unearth about the real life Zenobia, who is arrogant, and at times downright unlikeable as she mocks servants and is ruthless on her way upward, but is nonetheless a ...

Daughter of Sand and Stone is a compelling read that left me wanting more. I give major props to Hawker for turning Zenobia into such a multidimensional character and telling her story in such a respectful way. I rate Daughter of Sand and Stone 3/5 stars.

Daughter of Sand and Stone: Review — Bette's Pages

Daughter of Sand and Stone is Libby Hawkers' effort to retell Zenobia's story of bravery and tenacity. The story is engaging, and Hawker tells it well, but her well-written effort doesn't bring Zenobia into full life. The reader, after slogging through a rather long introduction of time, ...

Daughter of Sand and Stone | Historical Fiction eBooks

Daughter of Sand and Stone by Libbie Hawker is a novel about Zenobia, the famous warrior queen of Palmyra. She lived in the 3rd century, and it cannot be easy to successfully re-imagine her life, but Libby Hawker has done just that, and who doesn't love a story about a strong woman thrust into a man's world who must fight not only for her survival, but also for her throne and kingdom.
