Make Us A Eucharistic People

The Eucharist invites and challenges us to make it an integral part of our lived experience. The Eucharist celebrates and makes present the relationship God has with his people. The Eucharist presumes that we have converted hearts. We can proclaim the Word, but if it falls on deaf ears it is like the seed that fall on thorny ground.

What does it mean to be a Eucharistic people?

Interestingly, it is said that in the Eucharistic miracles His blood has been tested and is AB – the universal receiver. This suggests to me, that we are to give ourselves freely to Him and He receives us, making us one with him. Paragraph 23 states, “Eucharistic communion also confirms the Church in her unity as the body of Christ.”
