During a spa pedicure you should expect your feet to be soaked in warm water and your nails to be cut and shaped. Your nail spa therapist will use a pumice stone to buff away dry skin, and will follow up with an exfoliation. Then, she will lather up with lotion for a massage of your feet and lower legs before toenails are polished.

Polish your nails. Pick a nail polish that you really like. Roll the nail polish bottle between your hands for about 10 seconds. Shaking the bottle causes air bubbles in the polish and makes harder for the polish to stick to your nails. Begin painting nails using a thin coat. Dip the brush into the bottle of polish and as you remove it, gently ...
