Nest | Inga Simpson

Inga Simpson is one to surprise. Her first novel, Mr Wigg – while not something I would instinctively select – quickly won me over with its heartwarming tale. Her second work of fiction, Nest, again deals with loss, grief and healing, and the role that nature and creativity play here easily drew me in. Jen has moved back to the quiet coastal hamlet of her childhood and spent many years ...

Wonderfully evocative and beautifully delivered, NEST was utterly mesmerising. I'm very grateful that the inclusion of NEST in the 2015 Ned Kelly Submissions meant that this wonderful book by Inga Simpson came to my attention. I'm not sure that I'd call this a crime novel, but it's beautiful, engaging and extremely readable.
