Another great imaginative monster book by Mercer Mayer, this one is a story about a girl who writes a letter to her friend. It gets intercepted by all sorts of monsters along the way. Another reviewer mentioned that it seems Mayer is channeling Seuss with all the crazy made-up words in this book and I'll have to agree with her.

One Monster After Another. I bought the book because my brother and I had been talking about books we loved when we were children and he said this was his favorite. His birthday is coming up so I figured it was a great time to get it for him. The book is in much better condition than I anticipated given the description.
