Ricotta Polpette (or meatballs minus the meat) is a recipe that originates in none other than my home of Calabria, Italy. The dish, which involves the use of ricotta cheese in place of meat, derives from the traditional peasant cuisine — made with simple ingredients but of great taste and authenticity. These tasty and nutritious polpette ...

Delicious appetisers made basically with mashed potatoes and feta cheese and flavoured with lemon juice and dill. When I've made these, I've made small appetiser size polpettes, but they could be made larger and served as a delicious side dish with kebabs or any grilled meat or fish. I've adapted this recipe from a recipe I found in 'The Taste of Greece' and I'm posting it for the 2005 Zaar ...
