Meetings can be so drroll, or even worse, depressing, when the boss prattles on about all the things that need fixing. This is a great way to get people talking, and to get the positivity ball rolling. Calla Gold. Reply. DrLynnKJones. March 18, 2014 at 10:06 am.

20 Appreciative Questions to Jumpstart Your Team Meeting

The best work meeting I've ever attended (admittedly a very low bar) began with an interesting surprise. It was a small thing, but it improved the mood of the group right from the beginning and made us feel relaxed and comfortable. As a result, the meeting generated real progress and great ideas, and it even strengthened the bonds among the team.
