The F-90 is built with Roland's Progressive Hammer-Action keyboard, our most advanced keyboard mechanism ever. By using real hammers rather than springs, the F-90's 88 keys feel and respond just like an acoustic piano, with a lighter touch in the upper range and heavier touch in the lower range. Now you can play as expressively as you like.

The key action is one of the most exciting features of the Roland FP-90. It is the most realistic and expressive key action from Roland, called the PHA-50.This is the top of the line key action from Roland that you will find on many of its luxury models like the LX-17.. The PHA-50 is a hybrid key action that combines plastic and wood. There are two wooden panels on both sides of the keys.
