Thyagaraja Temple is a Shiva temple, located in the town of Thiruvarur in Tamil Nadu, India. Shiva is worshiped as Vanmiganathar, and is represented by the lingam. Daily poojas are offered to his idol referred to as Maragatha lingam. The main idol of worship is Lord Thiyagarajar, depicted as a Somaskanda form. His consort Parvathi is depicted as Kondi. The presiding deity is revered in the 7th century Saiva canonical work, the Tevaram, written in Tamil by saint poets known as the nayanars and cla

I. The hymns included in this part belong to the last period of our Poet's life.. The Nagaikaronam hymn suggests that the poet has come back to play an important part in the political life of the country. It is significant that in this part of his life, he does not go north of Vedaranyam and Tiruvaiyaru. It is the first time that our poet enters the Pandya country and his hymns give ...

Therein, one found the complete self-surrender of the poet as the lover of the Lord and his complete confidence in the Lord's Grace. But the world, being what it is, disturbs for a while this great confidence. Our poet has come back to Thiruvarur but unfortunately his eyesight has not yet been completely restored.
