In other news, I recently took some time to go through Valley of Embers, the first book in the ongoing Landkist Saga, and give it some TLC. While the story that kicked off the series has remained largely unchanged, the writing has been punched up. Overall, my approach to the revised/2nd edition was all about clarity.

Review: Valley of Embers - The Fictional Reader

Valley of the Embers has the feeling of a creative writing class project. Simile heavy, Kelliher chooses lyricism over clarity in his tale of a mystic people with a weaponized, fire-starting ability. Though the concept of a protector race is an interesting one, Kelliher drips information about the Emberfolk that would have perhaps been used as a better world building tool in a short prologue.
