Why I Jumped

So You Can't Jump Anymore. By Tom Herrin. Sometimes we reflect a little too much on what we can no longer do. We reminisce to the point that we seem to give up. If this applies to you, how about giving life a chance again? We often begin to dwell on things that we see as long ago activities. It is easy to feel that we are stiff and without the ...

So You Can't Jump Anymore - The Joint

"Q25 What's the reason you jump? When I'm jumping it's as if my feelings are going upward to the sky. Really, my urge to be swallowed up by the sky is enough to make my heart quiver. When I'm jumping, I can feel my body parts really well, too--my bounding legs and my clapping hands--and that makes me feel so, so good."
