Wishing On Willows Katie Ganshert

*Katie Ganshert's Wishing on Willows is rich in symbolism but as down-to-earth as its Midwestern heroine, a young widow juggling the roles of single mom, business owner, and ministry volunteer. I was thoroughly drawn into her changing seasons of love and loss, memory and hope.

Wishing on Willows - Katie Ganshert

Wishing on Willows is a beautiful continuation of Wildflowers from Winter. After meeting fragile and grieving Robin in WFW, I very much wanted to know the rest of her story, and it did not disappoint. The writing, as I've come to expect from Katie Ganshert, is beautiful. The themes of redemption and second chances were equally evocative.

Wishing on Willows by Katie Ganshert - Goodreads

Katie Ganshert, author of Wishing on Willows, has delivered another emotionally rich story of characters finding healing and happiness after heartache. Widow Robin Price has done her best to build a life and pull herself from the mire of grief, but she's faced with losing her beloved café when developer Ian McKay shows up determined to tear it down to make room for condominiums.
